"When discussing the final product, please do so in private, as this is forbidden in China. . . . [F]entanyl is recommended [because] piperidine is the best-selling product in Mexico, which is used to make fentanyl."

“[We] need to keep our private information for the safety reason . . . because recently American government . . . seized some Mexican group and they followed the routes to China, [where the U.S. Government found] our competitor in China, which was bad news for us.”
